

‘The Discussion Section in Essence’ Poem [Poema ‘La Esencia del Apartado de la Discusión’]

Moreno (2015) composed this poem to recommend novel ERA authors write their Discussion section as if talking to their peers about the meaning of their results to their discipline and about the value of their research. The poem was inspired by the findings she obtained for English in her genre-based English-Spanish cross-cultural study of empirical RA Discussion (and/or other Closing) sections across a variety of disciplinary fields.

Remember this was our plan In view of what others have done Our findings are now summarized To prove whether we were right	 	¿Recuerdas lo que nos planteamos a la luz de lo ya publicado? Pues resumamos los resultados Para ver si lo hemos logrado
This evidence shows what we expected So our hypothesis is corroborated But this one is very surprising We wonder why; it is disappointing		Nuestro hallazgo es justo lo esperado La hipótesis se ha corroborado Pero esto otro es alucinante No se explica. ¡Es decepcionante!
Factor X could well be the cause Some others could not agree more Such theory gets our support Our predictions are likely to hold		La causa podría ser tal factor En consonancia con aquel otro autor La teoría obtiene confirmación Nos permite hacer una predicción
Our study has some limitations But, please, note its many innovations It makes a great contribution As it offers the desired solution		El estudio tiene limitaciones Pero aprecia sus innovaciones Realizamos una gran aportación Ofreciendo la añorada solución
We now show a few implications We can make some recommendations Our results could well be applied But some things need to be clarified		Extraemos finalmente implicaciones Proponiendo algunas recomendaciones Los resultados bien se pueden aplicar Quedando algún aspecto por clarificar
